

Contents

Part I: Another Time, A Greater Task (2014)

1 The Context, the Movement, and the Book	3
The Context	3
The Movement and Its Sequel	24
The Book	42
2 The Vocation of Legal Thought Now	47
The Two Vocations of Legal Thought	47
The Universal History of Legal Thought	53
The Genius of Contemporary Law	67
The Jurist as Priest and as Prophet	73

Part II: The Critical Legal Studies Movement (1986)

3 Introduction: The Tradition of Leftist Movements in Legal Thought and Practice	79
4 The Criticism of Legal Thought	83
The Critique of Objectivism	83

The Critique of Formalism	86
The Critiques of Objectivism and Formalism Related: Their Significance for Current Legal Theories	90
5 From Criticism to Construction	95
The Constructive Outcome of the Critique of Formalism: Deviationist Doctrine	95
The Constructive Outcome of the Critique of Objectivism: Redefining the Institutional Forms of Democracy and the Market	103
From a Social Ideal to an Institutional Program	107
Political and Cultural Revolution	107
Criticizing and Reinventing Democracy	109
The Organization of Government	114
The Organization of the Economy	115
The Regime of Rights	119
Transformative Ideals and Political Realism	124
6 Two Models of Doctrine	127
From an Institutional Program to a Doctrinal Example:
Equal Protection and Destabilization Rights	127
The Uses of Equal Protections	128
The Hidden Theory of Equal Protection	130
The American Doctrine of Equal Protection	134
Equal Protection Reconceived and Reconstructed	137
Authority and Realism in Doctrine	141
From an Institutional Program to a Doctrinal Example:
Contract, Market, and Solidarity	143
Contract Theory Disintegrated	143
Principle and Counterprinciple: Freedom to Contract and Community	145
Principle and Counterprinciple: Freedom of Contract and Fairness	153
The Countervision Tested: Instances of Exemplary Difficulty	162
The Countervision Generalized: The Sources of Obligations and the Nature of Rights	168

The Countervision Extended and Restricted	170
The Countervision Justified	173
The Two Models Compared	176
7 Underlying Conceptions and Broader Implications	179
Beyond Internal Development: Social Understanding and Normative Commitment	179
The Broader Implications	187
The Terms of Ideological Controversy	187
The Method of Political Philosophy	188
Freedom and Structure in Modernist Experience	192
The Agenda of Social Theory	195
8 Another Politics	199
The Settings of Political Action	199
Reimagining Transformative Politics	204
Conclusion: The Lessons of Incongruity	209
Index	211